Martie,

I've attached for your records an eligibility letter for [REDACTED]. The documentation provided by [REDACTED] confirm that his only felony convictions were during the 1973-1981 "grace period." He therefore does not have to get his voting rights restored and is eligible to register and vote.

Normally I require some type of documentation confirming the felony conviction, and I would not necessarily accept a TBI/FBI Background check. Among other reasons, the TBI background check dates do not necessarily show the exact dates of conviction and the offense. However, I have been working with [REDACTED] and his daughter, [REDACTED], for about a month and know they have tried unsuccessfully to get the documentation from the Williamson County Criminal Court and the Davidson County Criminal Court. Moreover, [REDACTED] only convictions are for drug crimes. Even if his felony conviction fell before the 1973-1981 grace period, drug convictions are not one of the "infamous" crimes listed for the pre-1973 category convictions that got their voting rights taken away either.

I know that's a lot of extra information, but just an FYI!

Jessica
